Digital Publication Brings Added Functionality and Ease of Use to Texas Legal Citation Guide and Trusted Style Manual

AUSTIN, TX and SALT LAKE CITY, UT (July 22, 2013)—After an extensive vetting process, the Texas Law Review Association has selected the Rulebook app as the exclusive mobile app to publish the Manual on Usage & Style and The Greenbook: Texas Rules of Form on mobile devices. The Greenbook is the authoritative style guide for legal citation in Texas used by lawyers, scholars, judges, law students, paralegals, and others involved in the legal profession. The Manual on Usage & Style is relied upon by law students and legal professionals throughout the country and is known as a concise yet very informative and useful writing guide.

“The Rulebook app helps us make The Greenbook as accessible as possible,” said Kelsie Krueger, Editor in Chief of the Texas Law Review. “We are excited to see The Greenbook available in such an easy-to-use digital format.”

The Rulebook app allows legal professionals to easily reference federal and state court rules, codes, and style manuals. The app incorporates all the functionality of paper rule books, such as highlighting, bookmarking, and note-taking, and adds functionality unique to digital devices, including searching, hyperlinking, and multitasking. It also keeps the mobile versions of The Greenbook and the Manual on Usage & Style, as well as its other content, current with regular updates that are seamlessly integrated without overwriting the user’s personal highlights and annotations.

“We are honored that the Rulebook app has been chosen as the mobile app for these trusted works,” said Gregory Hoole, president of Ready Reference Apps, the developer of the Rulebook app. “There is an unmistakable paradigm shift occurring from paper to paperless publication. The Texas Law Review Association’s proactive move into this new space will provide a great benefit to law students and legal professionals alike.”

The Greenbook is currently in its Twelfth Edition with a foreword by Bryan A. Garner, editor in chief of Black’s Law Dictionary and the author of numerous works on legal style, most recently Reading Law: The Interpretation of Legal Texts and Making Your Case: The Art of Persuading Judges, both co-written with Justice Antonin Scalia. Garner also edited several editions of the Manual on Usage & Style, which also contains a foreword by Charles Alan Wright dating back to the Second Edition.
